

Community Meeting regarding Proposed Reception Facility
at Boulder Ridge Golf Course
County File # 2195-42-53-08P (M1)

The County of Santa Clara Planning Office is hosting a community meeting to discuss the proposed Reception Facility at Boulder Ridge Golf Course

Boulder Ridge Golf Course is an existing 200 acre golf course located at 1000 Old Quarry Road in Almaden Valley. The proposed Reception Facility includes proposed construction of an approximately 3,500 square foot Reception Building with an ancillary storage / bathroom structure on an existing pad south of the Golf Course Clubhouse. The facility is proposed to be used for a variety of reception events, including wedding and corporate events.

The intent of the Community Meeting is to discuss the proposed Reception Facility with the surrounding Community and solicit input and feedback regarding the proposal. This meeting is scheduled on short notice in consultation with neighborhood groups to meet County processing timelines and public input needs.

Plans showing the proposed Reception Facility are available for review at the County Planning Office located at the County Government Center, East Wing, 7th Floor, 70 West Hedding, San Jose. Please reference the file number above.

If you have any questions regarding this meeting and proposal, please call Rob Eastwood at 408/299-5792.

Date: Tuesday, March 10
